

Currently Abara is developing a 4-acre campus as a Borderland Center for Beloved Community. The center sits on a historic river crossing located directly on the US-Mexico border and will incorporate a café, event center, marketplace, commemorative pathways, ecumenical chapel, guesthouse, and a history & cultural arts center. In the tradition of peace builders worldwide we envision a global beloved community flourishing through justice, peace, healing, and transformation.

VISIT ABARAHOUSE.ORG TO LEARN MORE