

FEAR OVER IMMIGRATION DIVIDES US. WE CREATE SPACES FOR CONNECTION TO BUILD PEACE.

Without meaningful relationships with our neighbors, fear thrives, harmful narratives spread, and we lose sight of our shared humanity. Located on an ancient crossroads along the US-Mexico border, Abara creates physical and relational spaces for people to connect. We're writing a new story—one of belonging and peace.

CREATING CONNECTION AT THE BORDER

We're cultivating spaces for reflection, action, and partnership that honor dignity and foster hope.

ABARA HOUSE

A peace-building center on the border where people can connect, learn, and take meaningful action.
